

Freelance data analyst

We are seeking an experienced freelance analyst to support our team with management information and funder reporting. c6 days' work by end of January 2021 and on an ad hoc basis on going.

Our data is held in a cloud based csv/tableau database with c 200 data points per entry. The analyst will be required to;

- Extract and analyse data
- Analyse and report on client demographic profiles, type of support received and issues pre and post Covid.
- Estimate likely forward service demand
- Use data to respond to regular funding requirements
- Set standard reports
- Advise on data and analytical solutions to meet organisational objectives

Requirements

3+ years' experience in an analytical role

Excellent communication skills both written and oral

Excellent data manipulation and analytical skills.

Detail oriented, self-driven, and outcome-focused

Application

Please send your expressions of interest including summary CV, two referees and day rate to recruitment@cab-oxford.org.uk by midday on 4th January 2021.